Student Report: Ikkyu and View – Year 5

Speaking & Listening:

Ikkyu and View have made good progress in their speaking and listening skills this term. They are becoming more confident in expressing their ideas and understanding classroom discussions. When focused, both students listen carefully and respond thoughtfully. Their pronunciation and sentence use are improving steadily, and they are showing greater willingness to speak up in class activities.

Reading & Phonics:

Reading has improved significantly for both Ikkyu and View. They are now able to read with better fluency and understanding, recognizing familiar phonics patterns and new vocabulary more easily. Their growing confidence in reading aloud shows clear progress. Continued regular reading practice at home will help them build stronger comprehension skills and maintain this positive momentum.

Grammar & Writing:

Both students are developing a stronger grasp of basic grammar and sentence structure. They can now form clearer and more complete sentences in their writing and are learning to use punctuation more accurately. While their written work can still be inconsistent at times, their recent progress suggests that steady improvement will continue in the coming months.

Personal Expression & Conversation:

Ikkyu and View enjoy participating in conversations and class discussions when encouraged. They are gradually becoming more comfortable sharing their ideas and opinions in English. As their vocabulary expands, they are beginning to express themselves more naturally and confidently. Continued practice in everyday English conversation will further strengthen their fluency and comfort.

Overall Strengths:

Both Ikkyu and View are kind, enthusiastic learners who bring a positive attitude to class. Their reading progress and growing confidence are clear strengths, and their willingness to try new language activities helps them continue improving.

Recommendations for Improvement:

Ikkyu and View should continue following the course closely and previewing upcoming lessons and books on the website. Maintaining focus during class and keeping a consistent study routine will help them make steady monthly progress. Regular reading and short daily writing exercises will also reinforce their growing language skills.
